

The Kuala Lumpur Royal Malaysia Police College

As a new implementation of INTERPA, the information about member institutions will be shared periodically. The Kuala Lumpur Royal Malaysia Police College is an institution providing training not only for the Senior Police Officers but also the other ranks. The institution is integration of four Royal Malaysia Police training institutions, namely the Kuala Kubu Bharu Police College, the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) College, the Special Branch Training School (SBTS) and the Traffic Training School.

The Kuala Lumpur Royal Malaysia Police College purpose-built campus offers excellent world class facilities, including a library, residential halls, auditoriums, Moot Courts, Mock Casino, lecture halls, sporting facilities and state-of-the-art technologies that provide students with complete learning environment for academic, research and recreational pursuits.

The Kuala Lumpur Royal Malaysia Police College's Commandant is Mr. Dato' Tan Chong Jin. For further information, please check the link: <http://rmpckl.rmp.gov.my/Default.aspx>
